Same-Home Bedroom Transition Plan

A new room needs a clear place for the child's things.

Explain the fixed decision honestly and offer only choices you can honor.

Hypothetical example: a child moves to a different room in the same home, labels personal boxes and chooses between two shelf positions the adults already checked.

01 Confirmed change

State what the adults have actually decided.

Old and new room use

Reason you can explain

Change date confirmed or pending

02 Useful choices

Offer a voice in details that remain open.

Setup choice available

Child's practical question

Adult deciding the unresolved detail

Same-Home Bedroom Transition Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Belongings handoff

Keep ownership clear through the move.

Personal-item locations

Unfinished project storage

Child's suitable moving job

04 First use

Check the room as it is actually used.

Missing setup instruction

Adult action still owed

Review after the first use