Home Artwork Handling Agreement

Ask about this piece and this place.

Appreciation for a child's work does not require a home display.

Hypothetical example: a child declines a refrigerator display and chooses a folder for the drawing; the parent stores it there and asks separately before showing another piece to visiting relatives.

01 The piece

Identify the work without rating the child.

Artwork being discussed

Proposed home display location

People likely to see it

02 Child's answer

Hear the request before defending your idea.

Child's preferred handling

Question about the proposed audience

Appreciation you can express separately

Home Artwork Handling Agreement / Review & follow-through

03 Available arrangement

Choose a place you can actually provide.

Display or storage choice

Space limit to explain

Adult action needed

04 Follow-through

Make the agreed handling real.

Where the piece was placed

Later audience change requiring a new question

Date or event for checking the arrangement