Teammate Comparison Response

Name the particular comparison without insulting either child.

Hear the disappointment without approving mistreatment, and turn one specific comparison into a responsible learning question.

Hypothetical example: A child envies a teammate's passing skill, repairs an insult, and asks the coach for a suitable instruction for their own learning.

01 Name the particular comparison

Name the particular comparison without insulting either child.

Skill being compared

Child's exact concern

What was actually observed

What is assumed

02 Hear the feeling and address the conduct

Separate the feeling from conduct that needs correction.

Feeling named

Conduct to address

Teammate treated unfairly

Repair needed

Teammate Comparison Response / Review & follow-through

03 Choose a teammate response

Choose a respectful teammate response and a coach question.

Respectful next response

Coach question

Learning responsibility

Parent's words

04 Review the responsibility you chose

Review the action without promising equal results.

Response completed

Answer received

Comparison still unresolved

Next decision