Check First When Plans Change

A sent message is not a received yes.

A change in place, people, ride, or time requires the agreed adult check; urgent danger requires immediate help.

Example: a park visit changes to a house visit. The child asks about the new place and ride, then waits for clear approval.

01 Record the plan

Write the arrangement that was actually approved.

Approved destination

Responsible adult

Approved ride

Agreed return time

02 Notice a change

Mark which facts require another conversation.

New destination

Change in people

Change in transport

Change in timing

Check First When Plans Change / Review & follow-through

03 Ask and wait

Prepare the message and the ordinary fallback.

Permission message

Adult who may approve

Clear approval wording

No-response fallback

04 Review the outing

Repair the specific check that was missed.

What actually changed

Check completed or missed

Supervision adjustment

Next practice scenario