Forgotten School Item Decision Sheet

Decide the help, then teach the handoff.

A truthful same-day decision and a clear next-day cue serve different purposes.

Hypothetical example: a parent confirms that an ordinary notebook can be left at the office and later helps the child put it beside the bag after homework.

01 The missing item

Name the task affected by the item.

Item left behind

Known use today

Question needing school clarification

02 Adult decision

Record the arrangement you can actually complete.

Delivery decision

Permitted school handoff

Confirmation still needed

Forgotten School Item Decision Sheet / Review & follow-through

03 Child explanation

Keep the ordinary mistake truthful.

Short explanation

Question for the teacher

Temporary instruction received

04 Tomorrow's cue

Teach one visible preparation step.

Where the item will wait

When the bag check happens

What the next check showed