Different Household Rules and Visit Plan

Explain your rule without insulting their family.

A clear family boundary does not require a judgment about another household's character.

Hypothetical example: a child wants the same game access as a friend; the parent explains the home rule and confirms a visit arrangement without insulting the friend's parents.

01 Find the actual difference

Identify the specific difference.

Specific rule in question

Child's description of the difference

What is actually confirmed

What is only assumed

02 Explain the rule you actually keep

Explain your actual household rule.

Your household's present rule

Reason you can explain honestly

Boundary that is not negotiable here

Point you may review later

Different Household Rules and Visit Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Confirm what matters to a visit

Confirm the visit arrangement with adults.

Responsible adult for the visit

Question to confirm directly

Arrangement actually agreed

Unanswered detail to hold

04 Give the child usable words

Give the child a truthful response.

Child's respectful response

How to ask for adult help

Adult insult to leave out

Next visit review date