The Moving-Home Questions and Updates

Answer what is known. Own the unknowns.

Adults manage the move; children deserve truthful answers, appropriate support and real small choices.

Example: the move date is confirmed, but an activity schedule is not. An adult contacts the provider while the child chooses a familiar book for the first night.

01 List confirmed facts

Do not put sensitive addresses on a shared page.

Move decision actually confirmed

Timing currently known

Care or school arrangement confirmed

Fact not yet settled

02 Hear the child's questions

Use the child's actual words.

Question about a person or place

Question about an ordinary routine

Concern needing adult attention

Answer given so far

The Moving-Home Questions and Updates / Review & follow-through

03 Own checks and choices

Adults obtain information from the actual source.

Adult responsible for checking

Source or organization to ask

Real child choice offered

Suitable goodbye to confirm

04 Return with an update

An honest update can remain unresolved.

Next update point

Newly verified answer

Promise needing correction

Support or routine to carry forward