One Concern Before School

Listen to the child. Pray plainly. Prepare the next step.

A short prayer can name a real concern while practical care and adult follow-through remain clear.

Example: a child is unsure about an assignment. The family prays for help and prepares a clear question for the teacher.

01 Listen before school

Give the child a comfortable way to name a concern.

Question to ask

Concern child chooses

Privacy preference

Adult care needed

02 Prepare the prayer

Use ordinary words addressed to God.

Request to bring

Character or conduct to ask for

Child's words or quiet choice

Scripture context to remember

One Concern Before School / Review & follow-through

03 Prepare the day

Assign the actual responsibility to the right person.

Child's next action

Adult's next action

Person child can approach

Material or contact needed

04 Return with attention

Review the real issue without demanding an outcome.

Later check-in question

What child reports

Good that can be named

Concern still needing help