Practice Mistake Review Boundary

Write the concern in the child's own words.

Listen to the specific concern, choose one useful review point, and leave technical follow-up with the responsible coach.

Hypothetical example: A child repeats a missed pass; a parent records one coaching question and closes the review before the family meal.

01 Hear the concern before correcting it

Write the concern in the child's own words.

Practice moment

Child's exact concern

What parent observed

What remains unknown

02 Separate learning from repeated judgment

Separate an answerable question from repeated judgment.

Question worth asking

Repeated judgment to stop

Coach responsible

Time for follow-up

Practice Mistake Review Boundary / Review & follow-through

03 Choose a limited review

Agree on one suitable review and the coach handoff.

One review point

Adult response

Agreed closing sentence

Ordinary next activity

04 End without dismissing the child

Close the discussion honestly and return to ordinary family life.

Answer received

Unfinished concern

Parent boundary kept

Next decision