Name and Address Confirmation

Learn the name the athlete actually uses.

The coach's convenience does not decide an athlete's form of address.

Hypothetical example: a coach confirms a pronunciation, corrects the assistant who copied the error, and uses the agreed name at the next session.

01 Ask the athlete to say the name

Hear and repeat the athlete's requested pronunciation.

Athlete's pronunciation or address request

Confirmation to ask back

Public remark to avoid about the name

02 Distinguish address from official records

Separate practice address from official record authority.

Practice address agreed

Official record question for responsible adult

Respectful distinction if names repeat

Name and Address Confirmation / Review & follow-through

03 Correct the version you taught others

Correct your own earlier use where necessary.

People who heard your mistaken version

Correction you will give

Permitted coaching note to update

04 Honor a request to stop a nickname

Follow through on a current nickname boundary.

Current nickname request

Adults who need the change

Next session use to check