The Two-Teammate Conflict Record

Hear the facts and teach the next conduct step.

A conflict response separates witnessed facts, different accounts, harmful conduct, and the authorized follow-up.

Example: two athletes dispute a turn order and use insults. The coach stops the insults, checks the original assignment, teaches a respectful question, and observes the next supervised turn selection.

01 Stop and protect

Identify the immediate boundary and proper support.

Observed conduct to stop

Immediate supervised arrangement

Concern requiring escalation

Responsible program contact

02 Hear both accounts

Keep uncertainty visible.

First athlete account

Second athlete account

Facts coach witnessed

Detail still unconfirmed

The Two-Teammate Conflict Record / Review & follow-through

03 Set the next action

Address conduct and the disputed task.

Assignment fact checked

Conduct standard to explain

Authorized next arrangement

Respectful sentence to practice

04 Follow through

Review the next relevant encounter.

Observing adult role

Next encounter to check

Conduct actually observed

Parent or program follow-up needed