Acts 17 Proclamation and Response Map

Keep the message and the reported voices recognizable.

Trace what the account records before assigning a label to a present person.

Hypothetical example: a family writes Paul's proclamation, distinguishes believers from opposing speakers in Thessalonica, then traces Berea's ready hearing and daily examination without labeling a child as either city.

01 Proclamation

Begin with the message presented in the account.

Passage read together

Paul's proclamation about Christ

Scripture-based reasoning detail

02 Thessalonica voices

Distinguish the responses and the reported speakers.

Believing response in the account

Opposing speakers and accusation

Words to keep attributed to their speaker

Acts 17 Proclamation and Response Map / Review & follow-through

03 Berea response

Follow the change of place and the connected response.

Move to Berea in the account

Ready reception and daily examination

Believing response recorded afterward

04 Accurate retelling

Keep your added illustration distinct from the text.

Scene the child retold

Added detail to remove or label as an illustration

Verse question and responsible church help