Acts 8 Question and Explanation Record

Begin where the reader actually needs help.

A helpful explanation answers the real question and keeps Jesus in view.

Hypothetical example: A child asks whom the Isaiah passage describes; the parent identifies Philip's proclamation and takes a remaining interpretation question to the church teacher.

01 Listen for the question inside the reading

Identify the reader, the passage and his exact question.

Who is reading

Text being read in the account

Question the reader asks

02 Follow where Philip begins and where he points

Locate what Acts says Philip explains.

Where Philip begins

Whom he proclaims

What his full speech does not disclose

Acts 8 Question and Explanation Record / Review & follow-through

03 Read the response without inventing a household ritual

Record the response and a genuine doctrine question separately.

Response actually recorded

Translation or church question to ask

Responsible teacher for that question

04 Let a real question shape the next reading

Choose a specific family reading follow-up.

Child's present reading question

Help the adult can accurately give now

Follow-up to bring back to the passage