Read Planting and Watering as an Answer to Church Factions - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Read 1 Corinthians 3:1-17 as Paul's response to envy, strife and allegiance to named ministers. Recognize real teaching work without replacing belonging to Christ with a favorite leader's faction.

Hypothetical example: A parent credits a teacher for a useful explanation but withdraws the claim that every serious Christian must join that teacher's side.

01 Read the named loyalties before the garden image

Read the named loyalties and conduct Paul addresses.

Conduct Paul names

Loyalty slogans

Question the image answers

02 Give the workers and the growth their stated places

Separate planting, watering and the increase attributed to God.

Planter and action

Waterer and action

Increase attributed to

Read Planting and Watering as an Answer to Church Factions - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Stay through the foundation and warning

Continue through Christ's foundation and the warnings about building.

Foundation named

Building warning

Question for church teaching

04 Name the teaching without recruiting a faction

Give accurate teaching credit without adding a faction identity.

Helpful teaching and source

Faction claim to remove

Actual disagreement to state