The Family Gift Commitment Plan

Set the total and keep the promise modest.

Thoughtful giving begins with honest limits and clear commitments.

Example: adults agree on a total for one occasion, include postage, choose a modest gift for each recipient, and mark purchases received before assigning delivery.

01 Set the giving period

Begin with the household's real limit.

Occasion / giving date

Total amount available

Existing responsibilities to protect

Adults agreeing to the plan

02 List recipients and costs

Include more than the shelf price.

Recipient / thoughtful gift idea

Item cost / verified seller terms

Delivery / wrapping / other cost

Unknown cost or deadline to check

The Family Gift Commitment Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Track the commitments

Distinguish ideas from actual orders.

Gift approved / purchase owner

Actual amount spent

Ordered / received / prepared status

Remaining amount / revised choice

04 Give and review

Finish the handoff and learn from it.

Delivery person / date

Outstanding item or return task

Expectation to clarify next time

Useful modest choice to repeat