Hebrews 4 High Priest and Grace Reading Page

Read through to the invitation and its named high priest.

God's searching knowledge does not make a parent all-knowing or replace the passage's focus on Jesus.

Hypothetical example: A parent reads the invitation to grace after previously stopping at the searching description of God's word.

01 Do not stop with the searching words

Read the searching description and identify who discerns and knows.

Words describing God's word

Knowledge belonging to God

Parent's assumption to keep separate

02 Name the high priest the passage names

Record the actual statements about Jesus the high priest.

Name and title given to Jesus

Weakness and sinlessness statements

Word needing further explanation

Hebrews 4 High Priest and Grace Reading Page / Review & follow-through

03 Hear the invitation as an invitation to grace

Read the invitation to grace without adding a performance or outcome formula.

Invitation in the closing verse

Mercy or help the text names

Outcome promise we must not add

04 Keep the application centered where the passage is centered

Pray about a truthful need and preserve questions for further teaching.

Truthful prayer concern

Adult reading habit to correct

Question for church study