Vine, Branches, and Family Application Map

Read the relationship before tallying the activity.

An illustration of faithful practice must not become a verdict on a child's faith.

Hypothetical example: a parent notices rushed devotional reading, returns to John 15 with one child question, and chooses a slower reading without adding a spiritual score.

01 The named relationship

Use the images the passage actually supplies.

Vine and branches in the text

Father's role named

Verse to read again

02 Commands and questions

Keep the surrounding teaching in view.

Command connected to the image

Prayer line needing context

Child's unfinished question

Vine, Branches, and Family Application Map / Review & follow-through

03 Editorial application

Mark the household illustration as an application.

Adult habit to examine

Ordinary illustration proposed

Claim the illustration cannot establish

04 Return to the passage

Choose a real practice without a score.

Adult-owned next practice

Question for church discussion

Next reading time