Read Luke 7 With Simon Listening to the Two Debtors - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Read Luke 7:36-50 with Simon's judgment, the two canceled debts and Jesus' words to the woman together. Do not invent her identity or turn her acts into a price for forgiveness.

Hypothetical example: An adult stops dismissing a visitor by a past failure and hears the actual question about Christian teaching without demanding public disclosure.

01 Do not add a name the passage does not give

Read Luke 7:36-50 without adding the woman's name or history.

Woman as described

Simon's judgment

Added detail to remove

02 Hear why neither debtor can settle the account

Trace the two debts, inability to pay and free cancellation.

Two debts

Inability to pay

Creditor's action

Read Luke 7 With Simon Listening to the Two Debtors - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Follow Jesus' comparison and final words

Keep Jesus' comparison and final words in the same encounter.

Comparison Jesus makes

Final words

Theological question

04 Put down the scorecard you brought to the conversation

Remove a prejudged dismissal from one present conversation.

Person unfairly dismissed

Actual question to hear

Adult correction