Bartimaeus Cry, Request and Response Page

Hear the request and keep Jesus in the scene.

An ordinary listening application must not replace the encounter's focus on Jesus.

Hypothetical example: A parent asks what a child needs clarified after practice instead of assuming the question concerns the score.

01 Listen to the cry the crowd tries to silence

Trace Bartimaeus' cry and the crowd's initial response in the actual verses.

Bartimaeus' cry

Crowd's initial action

What changes when Jesus stops

02 Attend to Jesus' question and Bartimaeus' answer

Record Jesus' question, Bartimaeus' request and the reported outcome.

Question Jesus asks

Request Bartimaeus makes

End of the encounter

Bartimaeus Cry, Request and Response Page / Review & follow-through

03 Ask before supplying another person's need

Identify an ordinary adult assumption that needs a real question.

Conversation where I am guessing

Question that leaves room for an answer

Adult responsibility after hearing

04 Keep following within the family's reading

Return to the account's ending and keep the application within its limits.

Following in the passage

Limit of our household analogy

Question for further church reading