Vineyard Agreement and Generosity Map

Check the agreement before naming the wrong.

A kept promise and generosity toward someone else can coexist.

Hypothetical example: A parent separates a fulfilled volunteer arrangement from resentment about another person's gift, while keeping a child's actual broken promise open for repair.

01 Read the agreement before the complaint

Trace the workers' agreement and later expectation.

What the earliest workers agreed

What they later expected

Text supporting the distinction

02 Hear the householder's answer in the parable

Record the householder's answer and kingdom setting.

Householder's answer

Generosity he identifies

Question about the kingdom setting

Vineyard Agreement and Generosity Map / Review & follow-through

03 Separate a broken agreement from an unwelcome gift

Classify the actual family concern without guessing motives.

Present agreement actually made

Whether that agreement was kept

Other person's gift or separate circumstance

04 Review a generous response without demanding a feeling

Choose a truthful repair or a suitable generous response.

Repair required, if any

Response the adult can choose

Unresolved fact to check before judging