Read the Coin Question and Both Parts of Jesus' Reply - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Read Matthew 22:15-22 through the image-and-inscription question and the whole reply. Distinguish the passage's exchange from a slogan that claims to settle every present civil dispute.

Hypothetical example: An adult withdraws a summary that made the ruler's demands unlimited and rereads the coin question and both parts of Jesus' reply with the family.

01 Read why the question is being asked

Read the stated purpose and the actual tribute question.

Narrator's stated purpose

Question asked

Detail not supplied

02 Let the coin do the work it does in the scene

Follow the request for the coin and its image and inscription.

Object requested

Image-and-inscription question

Answer given

Read the Coin Question and Both Parts of Jesus' Reply - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Keep God in the whole reply

Read both parts of Jesus' reply through the ending.

Caesar clause

God clause

Question needing wider teaching

04 Restore the clause your summary omitted

Correct a summary that omits or enlarges one clause.

Summary to examine

Omitted or enlarged claim

Accurate shorter explanation