Read Matthew 22 Before Ranking Love and Responsibility Against Each Other - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Identify the testing question and Jesus' connected answer. Apply it to a real duty without inventing an excuse to neglect either God or neighbor.

Hypothetical example: Adults review an agreed preparation task and change who will do it before the next departure. They do not ask a child to rank the family's love for God.

01 Begin with the question in the scene

Identify the question and its setting.

Passage

Question asked

Setting reported

02 Read both commandments

Read both commandments and Jesus' final statement together.

First commandment

Second commandment

Final statement

Read Matthew 22 Before Ranking Love and Responsibility Against Each Other - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Bring one concrete duty into the conversation

Examine one actual duty on verified facts.

Actual duty

Person affected

Facts or agreement to check

04 Make the next action honest

Choose an honest next action without judging another person's inner faith.

Suitable action and owner

Boundary or help needed

Review of actual follow-through