Read the Tempter's Quotation Beside Jesus' Answer - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Read Matthew 4:1-11 as exchanges between the tempter and Jesus. A quotation appearing in an appeal does not by itself authorize the act the speaker wants performed.

Hypothetical example: A parent declines a lesson's proposal to abandon ordinary protection, then asks a responsible teacher about the quoted protection passage and its actual meaning.

01 Track the speaker before repeating the line

Identify the speakers and the three proposals in Matthew 4:1-11.

Speaker at each turn

Three proposals

Setting stated

02 Separate the cited words from the proposed jump

Read the temple proposal, quoted appeal and Jesus' reply together.

Temple action proposed

Protection appeal

Jesus' answer

Read the Tempter's Quotation Beside Jesus' Answer - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Read the whole pattern of the answers

Follow all the answers through the final worship demand.

Bread reply

Worship reply

Ending reported

04 Check the proposal a quotation is carrying

Examine what action one religious quotation is being used to demand.

Present proposed action

Quotation used to support it

Reason to decline or seek teaching