Matthew 6 Treasure and Family Priority Review

Examine the priority you actually practice.

A family can examine its priorities without claiming possessions reveal every person's heart.

Hypothetical example: a family notices an optional purchase taking attention from a promise already made and chooses to complete the promise first.

01 Read the teaching before judging the household

Read Jesus' teaching before choosing an application.

Passage read

Teaching you noticed

Question about the text

Adult interpretation to label

02 Choose one real priority to examine

Describe one actual family priority.

Priority under discussion

Actual time or resources used

Person affected by the choice

Facts missing from the account

Matthew 6 Treasure and Family Priority Review / Review & follow-through

03 Separate the facts from your interpretation

Check promises and competing attention.

Promise already made

Optional desire competing with it

Judgment about another family to omit

Responsible adult decision needed

04 Choose an adjustment the adults can honor

Choose one honest adjustment.

Adjustment the family chose

Who will carry it out

Evidence of follow-through

Date to review the choice