Philippians 4 Concern and Prayer Conversation

Pray honestly. Keep listening honestly.

An honest prayer does not require an invented explanation or a silenced question.

Hypothetical example: a child worries about a school presentation; the family prays, thanks God for actual help, and confirms the teacher's assignment.

01 Read the instructions together

Read the passage before applying it.

Verses read

Instruction you noticed

Unfamiliar word or phrase

Question for further discussion

02 Hear the concern in the child's words

Hear the concern and actual facts.

Child's own concern

Known fact about the situation

Adult assumption to remove

Practical information still needed

Philippians 4 Concern and Prayer Conversation / Review & follow-through

03 Pray with truthful requests and thanksgiving

Pray and thank God without fabrication.

Request in honest words

Actual reason for thanksgiving

Outcome you cannot promise

Person whose help is available

04 Keep practical help and prayer together

Choose a present responsibility and follow-up.

Present adult duty

Child's appropriate preparation

Time to listen again

Question that remains open