Psalm 1 Counsel and Two Ways Reading

Read the counsel, images and ending together.

Examine the actual advice and keep your household method distinct from Scripture's authority.

Hypothetical example: a family reads all of Psalm 1, considers advice to conceal an unfinished duty, rejects that specific suggestion, and sends an honest update without promising a favorable outcome.

01 Opening contrast

Begin with counsel and delight in the text.

Psalm read together

Counsel or way described in the opening

Delight and meditation detail

02 Images and ending

Read beyond the most familiar image.

Tree and chaff details

Closing judgment and two ways

Word or theological question to examine

Psalm 1 Counsel and Two Ways Reading / Review & follow-through

03 Actual advice

Label the current comparison as an application.

Advice being considered in accurate words

Duty or Scripture support to check

Action following the advice would require

04 Chosen response

Make one real decision without grading another person.

Advice accepted or declined and reason

Specific response to carry out

Question and responsible church help