Psalm 103 Compassion and Clear Responsibility Plan

Read the description of the Lord's compassion.

Read Psalm 103:8-18, notice the text's account of compassion and human frailty, and choose a clear caring response to one actual limitation.

Hypothetical example: a parent notices that a task's instruction was unclear, explains it again, and gives suitable help instead of calling the child lazy.

01 Let the psalm describe God

Read the description of the Lord's compassion.

Passage read

Compassion described in the text

Human frailty noticed

Question about the reading

02 Describe the limit before judging it

Name the limit you actually observed.

Actual limitation observed

Task the child was attempting

Explanation the child offered

Assumption still unverified

Psalm 103 Compassion and Clear Responsibility Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Keep the responsibility understandable

Keep the responsibility clear and suitable.

Responsibility that remains

Instruction needing clarification

Part requiring adult help

Suitable next attempt

04 Choose words and help that agree

Choose a caring adult response.

Adult response chosen

Practical support offered

Care question needing outside help

Time to revisit the task