Follow Psalm 19 From the Sky to the Speaker's Own Words - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Trace the psalm's changing subjects and closing petition. Keep an outdoor observation, the text's claims and the family's prayer in their proper roles.

Hypothetical example: After reading the whole psalm, a parent repairs a careless sentence spoken during a walk. A cloud is not treated as a private instruction from God.

01 Let the opening be an opening

Read the opening images without stopping the psalm there.

Opening images

What they declare

Our observation, kept separate

02 Notice the change in subject

Identify the turn toward the Lord's instruction.

Words for instruction

Descriptions in the text

Term needing explanation

Follow Psalm 19 From the Sky to the Speaker's Own Words - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Read the speaker's need for correction

Attend to the speaker's need for correction.

Speaker's question

Petition about wrongdoing

Adult sentence or action to examine

04 Finish with the petition

Read and consider the final petition.

Closing prayer

Prayer in our own words

Question for further study