The Beatitude, Promise and Family Response

Keep Jesus' blessing and promise together.

The Beatitudes deserve context and careful explanation; a family action does not purchase a guaranteed outcome.

Example: after studying the peacemaking saying, an adult corrects an unfair accusation at home. The family reviews the repair without claiming that every conflict is now resolved.

01 Read the setting

Begin with the actual Matthew 5 passage.

Verses read

Speaker and audience noticed

Saying chosen

Child's question

02 Pair description and promise

Do not add a modern guaranteed result.

Person or quality described

Promise actually stated

Unfamiliar word to check

Added expectation to correct

The Beatitude, Promise and Family Response / Review & follow-through

03 Seek a responsible explanation

Keep the source of teaching clear.

Explanation supported so far

Church teacher or resource

Answer and source checked

Question still uncertain

04 Choose and review a response

Applications are the family's proposed actions.

Suitable adult response

Child's appropriate part

Action actually carried out

Text versus application review