The Neighbor Question and Mercy Response

Read the neighbor question. Choose a wanted act of mercy.

The passage supplies the teaching; adults keep the family's practical response appropriate, wanted and dependable.

Example: after reading Luke 10, a family agrees to a requested supply delivery through a church contact. An adult confirms the handoff while the child packs approved items.

01 Read the actual account

Keep Luke 10's question and answer together.

Passage read

Opening question noticed

Mercy shown in the story

Jesus' ending question

02 Identify a suitable need

Ask rather than invent the recipient's request.

Adult contact or organization

Help actually wanted

Permission or requirement

Need beyond our role

The Neighbor Question and Mercy Response / Review & follow-through

03 Assign a bounded response

Adults retain care and handoff decisions.

Exact family commitment

Adult responsibility

Suitable child task

Privacy or supervision arrangement

04 Return to text and action

Review actual follow-through.

Agreed action completed

Recipient requirement met or unresolved

Text versus our application

Next responsible step