The Salt and Light Witness Plan

Serve the real duty without staging applause.

The passage's stated purpose guides the action; a public account must still respect the person served.

Example: a family completes an approved welcome task, checks the practical need and keeps the visitor's private story out of a public account.

01 Read the purpose

Keep the images and stated aim together.

Passage and translation read

Image the child notices

Purpose Jesus states

Question about visibility

02 Choose the work

Confirm an actual duty or requested need.

Suitable task or need

Permission and responsible adult

Child's appropriate contribution

Realistic finish or handoff

The Salt and Light Witness Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Decide what to share

A useful purpose does not erase privacy.

Information necessary to share

Actual permission confirmed

Private detail to leave out

Applause-focused wording to avoid

04 Review the witness

Facts and spiritual claims remain distinct.

Work actually completed

Need or unfinished duty remaining

Account of the action to correct

Passage question to revisit