Read 2 Kings 22 Past the Discovery of the Book - working notes

One situation. Clear facts. An honest next step.

Read 2 Kings 22 from discovery through the king's inquiry and Huldah's response. Keep finding a text, hearing it and responding to its claim as distinct parts of the account.

Hypothetical example: A parent identifies a familiar family saying as their own summary, reads the actual reference and asks the church teacher about the claim it was used to support.

01 Finding the book is not the end of the scene

Trace the discovered book through the named readers.

Finder and recipient

Who reads to whom

Object versus heard words

02 Read the reason for the inquiry

Read why Josiah sends an inquiry.

King's reported response

People included in inquiry

Concern he states

Read 2 Kings 22 Past the Discovery of the Book - working notes / Review & follow-through

03 Let Huldah's answer remain in the reading

Keep both parts of Huldah's answer in the account.

Huldah's role

Words about the place

Words to the king

04 Separate a familiar practice from a checked text

Check the actual text behind one familiar family teaching claim.

Familiar teaching claim

Actual reference and wording

Question requiring follow-up