Trial Before Enrollment Decision

Find the first paid charge before entering the trial.

A trial deserves a real commitment decision.

Hypothetical example: an adult reads the later subscription price, finds that an existing resource meets the one-time need and declines before enrolling.

01 Make the paid decision before the free decision

Identify the household job and offer being considered.

Service and current offer

Real household use being considered

Existing alternative checked

02 Locate the terms you will have to act on

Record the current paid and cancellation terms.

Trial length and first paid price

Billing interval and any stated fees

Cancellation method and deadline

Trial Before Enrollment Decision / Review & follow-through

03 Give the trial a practical review job

Choose enrollment or decline with a review owner.

Enroll or decline decision

Account holder making the choice

Reminder and review question if enrolled

04 Keep enrollment and later cancellation separate

Keep the actual confirmation and future action distinct.

Actual confirmation or declined status

Records location without secrets

Later billing or cancellation follow-through