Event Promise and Responsibility Reset

Promise your conduct, not the result.

Correct an outcome guarantee before the event and make only the support arrangements and conduct commitments your family can keep.

Example: a parent retracts a promised win, confirms the actual travel plan, and commits to hearing the coach's direction before offering advice.

01 Hear the expectation

Ask what the child understood.

Adult's actual words

Promise the child heard

Outcome outside family control

Wording to correct

02 State the honest correction

Take ownership of the adult statement.

Exact correction sentence

Real hope without guarantee

Support arrangement confirmed

Promise still needing confirmation

Event Promise and Responsibility Reset / Review & follow-through

03 Separate responsibilities

Use actual duties and available adults.

Child's current assigned duty

Parent's logistical responsibility

Adult conduct commitment

Other adult's agreed role

04 Review the follow-through

Adult promises deserve review too.

After-event arrangement

Ordinary reflection question

Adult commitment actually kept
