Shared Venue Finish and Ownership

Shared space still needs a clear owner for each finishing duty.

A team should complete its agreed work without inventing authority over another group's property.

Hypothetical example: a team returns its labeled markers, preserves the venue's fixed setup and records an uncertain shared item for the authorized adult instead of moving it.

01 Read the room's actual finish arrangement

Confirm the venue's actual finish arrangement.

Current venue finish instruction

Responsible venue or program adult

Condition the next group expects

02 Separate team property from shared property

Identify property and access boundaries.

Team-owned items to return

Shared items to preserve

Uncertain ownership question

Shared Venue Finish and Ownership / Review & follow-through

03 Assign permitted work and an adult check

Assign appropriate team work and an adult check.

Approved athlete cleanup duty

Exact destination and finish

Adult handling unsuitable or unresolved work

04 Confirm the shared handoff without declaring perfection

Record the shared-space handoff honestly.

Team work actually completed

Shared arrangement checked

Unanswered handoff and responsible next contact