The Team-Language Reset

Give competitive effort a respectful vocabulary.

A language standard needs an interruption, a replacement, and consistent adult follow-through.

Example: after an insult in a passing drill, the coach stops the exchange, teaches "Reset and take the next rep," records the response, and watches the next missed attempt.

01 Name the incident

Write what was heard, not a guessed motive.

Words or conduct observed

Who needs immediate support

Applicable conduct boundary

Serious concern to route

02 Teach the replacement

Make the next phrase usable.

Coach interruption phrase

Acceptable teammate phrase

Where to rehearse it

Private repair needed

The Team-Language Reset / Review & follow-through

03 Carry the response

Use the program's proper process.

Program response or contact

What athlete is told

Parent communication needed

Adult language to correct

04 Observe under pressure

Check behavior when it matters.

Next situation to watch

Actual words observed

Response carried out

Further follow-up date