The Fruit-of-the-Spirit Reading and Response

Read the context. Model the response. Leave faith grading out.

The family's exercise is an application of Scripture, not a measure of a child's standing before God.

Example: while considering gentleness, an adult corrects a sharp instruction and a child practices a respectful request. They record actual responses without giving a faith grade.

01 Read Paul's context

Use the chosen Bible edition directly.

Passage and translation read

Freedom or service context noticed

Actual listed word chosen

Child's question about that word

02 Check the meaning

Keep a supported explanation beside the text.

Meaning explained so far

Church source or teacher

Ordinary practice situation

Text versus household application

The Fruit-of-the-Spirit Reading and Response / Review & follow-through

03 Prepare shared responsibility

Adults lead with their own appropriate action.

Adult response to practice

Child's suitable response

Clear words or action

Care or repair still needed

04 Review without grading faith

Record what happened, not spiritual rankings.

Adult action actually taken

Child action actually taken

Unclear explanation to revisit

Next distinct practice