The Child's Welcome and Service Plan

Prepare a place and carry a suitable duty.

Hospitality teaches considerate service within real household limits. Invitations, supervision, and sensitive arrangements stay with adults.

Example: a child sets napkins with guidance and offers a suitable greeting. Adults handle food needs and supervision. After the visit, the child returns the napkins and clears an assigned safe item.

01 Prepare for the person

Adults plan the invitation and practical needs.

Guest and adult-approved visit plan

Practical needs adults should consider

Household time, space, or supervision

Adult responsible for the arrangement

02 Teach a suitable duty

Give the child work they can understand.

Preparation or welcome task

What completion looks like

Instruction or help needed

Suitable greeting or quiet contribution

The Child's Welcome and Service Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Practice consideration

Ask before helping and respect a declined offer.

Considerate question to practice

Action needing adult permission

Rule for guests' belongings or privacy

How to ask an adult for help

04 Carry the finish

Include cleanup and honest review.

Child's suitable cleanup duty

Welcome or service actually offered

What the child noticed

Adult preparation to improve