The Ordinary-Week Faith Plan

Read together. Answer honestly. Practice useful service.

Let Christian teaching reach the way adults listen, keep promises, serve, and repair. Children may ask questions without performing agreement.

01 Choose a repeatable family moment

Fit the reading and conversation to the children's ability and the actual household.

Family reading / conversation time

Short passage to read

One question we can discuss

Support that makes participation workable

02 Handle questions honestly

Do not turn uncertainty into invented certainty or a test of loyalty.

What the passage actually says

Application we are considering

Question still unanswered

Trusted person / resource and follow-up time

The Ordinary-Week Faith Plan / Review & follow-through

03 Serve an actual need

Ask whether the help is useful. The person helped is not a lesson prop or a publicity opportunity.

Need we have checked

Modest act of service

Appropriate roles / adult supervision

When we will serve and follow up

04 Let the adult example carry weight

Keep an ordinary promise, make a repair, and notice whether the service helped.

Adult promise to keep this week

Apology / repair I need to model

How we will know the help was useful
