Worship and Tournament Planner

Put the family's commitments on one honest calendar.

Check real times and alternatives, communicate the decision, and examine repeated conflicts before renewing the season commitment.

Example: a family confirms an earlier church service and tournament arrival, checks travel time, and arranges a volunteer handoff. They record whether the plan was actually workable.

01 Place the commitments

Use confirmed times and responsible adults.

Worship time and place

Tournament arrival

Travel time to allow

Volunteer or family duty

02 Check alternatives

Confirm options instead of assuming availability.

Church option checked

Program flexibility checked

Church person consulted

Unresolved conflict

Worship and Tournament Planner / Review & follow-through

03 Choose and communicate

Name the tradeoff and who needs the answer.

Family decision

Reason for decision

Person to inform

Replacement or handoff confirmed

04 Review the season

Track the actual pattern before committing again.

Plan actually carried out

Repeated conflict pattern

Child concern heard

Next season decision point