Team Cheer Wording Review

Approve the words you actually heard.

A shared message should be truthful, respectful and clear about participation.

Hypothetical example: a coach reviews a proposed chant, removes a promise of victory, and confirms the short encouragement the captain may lead.

01 Ask for the actual words

Record the full proposed wording.

Complete proposed cheer

People named or referred to

Version not yet heard

02 Choose a statement the team can stand behind

Check the purpose and claims in the words.

Present purpose of the cheer

Claim or insult to revise

Program participation question

Team Cheer Wording Review / Review & follow-through

03 Make the approved version easy to recognize

Confirm the approved version and participation arrangement.

Words actually approved

Person permitted to lead

Choice or concern to explain

04 Respond when the wording changes

Resolve later additions or revisions.

Addition requiring a response

Adult correction also needed

Current version and review point